St Columban's Bursary Fund Art Union

Terms and Conditions

1. Ticket sales will be available from Wednesday, 3rd of May and will close on Thursday, 13th of July 2017, unless sold out earlier. Tickets are $20 each, and any tickets that are unsold at the closing date will not be included in the draw. There will be 2,500 tickets available for purchase. No further tickets will be issued, and all tickets will have an equal chance of winning. All tickets are non-refundable.
2. Winners will be drawn on Saturday, 15th July 2017, at the College's Annual Trivia Night (100 McKean St, Caboolture). All prizes will be drawn in descending order of value. Winners are not required to be present at the draw.
3. Prizes will be drawn using a random number generator through randomdraw.com.au. This provider is a certified, independent 3rd party. No argument will be entered into as to the results of the Art Union.
4. Total combined prize pool is valued at $23,472.10. The prize pool comprises of 6 prizes:

1st Prize	A Toyota Yaris (automatic) including delivery, stamp duty and on-road costs, valued at $20,472.10;
2nd Prize	A travel voucher valued at $2,000; and
3rd - 6th Prize	A $250 debit card (total value $1,000).
5. Winners will be notified by telephone, and results will be published on the College Facebook page, and in the College Newsletter for the week ending 21 July 2017.
6. Net proceeds of the Art Union will be donated to the St Columban's Bursary Fund.
7. Persons ineligible to enter the draw include the Senior Leadership Team of St Columban's College, members of their immediate family, and any suppliers of prizes and their immediate families.
8. The Art Union is conducted by St Columban's College under the Queensland Government's Category 2 Gaming Rules.

St Columban's College would like to thank Martin Jonkers Motors and past student Darci Smith for their generous support in facilitating prizes for this year's Art Union.
