

The Columban Newsletter Advertising

The St Columban's College newsletter, The Columban, is distributed on a weekly basis during term time to students, parents via students, staff, alumni, sponsors and members of the Caboolture community. This includes a readership of approximately 1500 per week.

We encourage local businesses to support the College by advertising in The Columban. Additionally, advertising in The Columban may provide your business with a deductible marketing exercise.

Advertising Details

- Advertising space is limited to the size of a business card
- Cost is $10 per week with a minimum commitment of four weeks
- The four or more weeks the advertisement appears in The Columban can be determined by the advertiser if desired. For example, this can occur consecutively or dispersed throughout the school term, semester or year.
