Characteristics of the student body

St Columban's has a diverse range of students enrolled including from rural areas and students with a low socio-economic status. Our catchment area is diverse: ranging from Bald Hills in the South to the Caloundra region in the North; from Kilcoy in the West to Bribe Island in the East. St Columban's College is easily accessible via its close proximity to the Caboolture/Sunshine Coast railway lines and also the multiple bus operators that service the College. Our diversity of blended pathways and school-based traineeships via strong links to local industry cater to the changing aspirations of our students, many of whom are the first in their family to attend university. Students at the College have come from over 30 different primary schools. Our Student Leadership structure gives students multiple opportunities to obtain essential life and global skills critical to making the successful transition from school life to life in the wider community. Participating in their house and college committees provides students with opportunities to make a valuable contribution to College life. As a founding school in TAS Saturday Sport competition, we have a proud history and tradition in sport in the district. With emphasis placed on teamwork and cooperation in sport, cultural and other co-curricular pursuits, our students develop a real sense of making a worthwhile contribution. The College has a strong connection with its past students from the original College at Albion in Brisbane, and it is an Edmund Rice Associate School.

Social climate

St Columban's College has a strong pastoral focus on the support of both our students and staff. The Pastoral Care system across the College offers a well developed and continually updating and evolving program across year levels to support and enhance student wellbeing. The aim of which is to nurture relationships with students which are safe, respectful and which help them reach their full potential. The programs offered work towards ensuring specific issues that are often common to each year level are targeted, as well as focusing on general wellbeing and resilience building.

Each year level at the College has a camp or retreat that focuses on the development opportunities of that year; added to this, we have seen continued growth in the delivery of retreat days, workshops, small group programs, peer mentor training and activities and information sessions for each year level. In particular, there have been workshops to target issues that include topics such as: bullying, safe behaviours, online profiles and footprints, mental health issues such as anxiety and depression, safe driving and healthy living. This has increased the opportunities for students to become involved and supported in the College. The Wellbeing Program is reflective of the Edmund Rice tradition and underpinned by the Touch Stones of Liberating Education, Gospel Spirituality, Inclusive Community and Justice and Solidarity. In the traditions of Edmund Rice, we aim to not only support students, but to push them to extend themselves and take opportunities. The college has an extensive Well Being Team in a modern service centre environment. The responsible thinking process works well within the college.

This level of satisfaction is emulated by the students, as is evident with their high level of participation in school co-curricular activities and community events. As part of our communication with parents, contact is made home to all year 7 students and all new students of all other levels to ensure a smooth transition into St Columban's College. The satisfaction of teaching staff is evident in their commitment to the College and their involvement in tuition support and co-curricular activities. The satisfaction levels for Parents, Students and Staff are also demonstrated through the growth and retention of student and staff numbers throughout the College. Testimonials to the College were submitted in feedback for the Australian Training Awards. Feedback is gathered through many avenues including Parent teacher Evenings, electronic communications, event evaluation, surveys, and parent meetings.

Parent engagement

The College prides itself on involving parents in every aspect of school life. We have two formal parent interview sessions throughout the year as well as the SET Planning process that involves parents formally attending information nights and interviews with members of the College Leadership team. In addition to these nights, the College holds an information evening for each year level, which includes open Q&A. We have a high level of engaged families in our TAS program which is demonstrated each Saturday morning at both home and away games as well as at the TAS awards evenings each term, our Year 12 Retreat, the Principal Excellence in Learning Awards, Inaugural Liturgy, Year 12 Tie Ceremony, New Student Welcome Ceremony, Supporter Groups, Career Expo, Coaching and the ANZAC Day Liturgy. The College has also used social media to involve parents in discussion and with decision making. Monthly attendance of parents at both P&F meetings and Pastoral Board meetings is very strong. Parents also contribute greatly to the smooth running of our annual Open Day. The College also has a weekly newsletter, a mobile app, and updates its website on a regular basis.

SCHOOL ACHIEVEMENTS

Achievements against 2017 annual plan

The goals set for 2016 included an increased and more effective use of data to support student outcomes. The Business Intelligence (BI) tool has much potential for this and we undertook professional development on this and staff are more connect in the tracking of students via this tool. Our literacy goals are on target with an improved NAPLAN performance which has been pleasing and continues to evolve. Much work has been done on the new senior schooling transition which was a further goal. Staff were involved in External Assessment trials in Modern History, as well as Calibration and Endorsement trials. This also continues. Our goal around the Leuven project was achieved with a report finalised and delivered to the College. This was acted upon with the Principal participating in the Leuven Intensive Study Project. The enhancing of catholic schools identity has taken place and all opportunities availed around Edmund Rice Charism and its application. The College continues to work on its SMART goals and further improving literacy and numeracy.

Future outlook

St Columban's College set several significant goals for 2018, a priority being our SMART goal which is literacy based. we are currently tracking to achieve this goal. Specific literacy targets have been set for Yr 7 and Yr 9. Continued development of pedagogical approaches and curriculum offerings to make best use of the STEAM centre is occurring. The collaboration of departments is a focus for this year and the design process cuts across subject areas in a new way. Work continues for the major change that the new senior schooling transition process brings. We have assessment occurring and have already had important professional development to support this and to ensure our students and staff are well prepared. the College has enjoyed a great success across a range of areas leading innovation in vocational and academic pathways. It's partnerships with Caboolture Hospital, Hutchinson Builders, Caboolture Sports Club and many Child Care Centres have yielded fruitful benefits for our students. In particular a new Business Network Breakfast series has been developed occurring monthly. This has been a great success in developing more opportunities for students.

Student attendance is managed by having engaging programs and policies which support a safe, welcoming, inclusive environment. This is based on a vertical House system, which involves a strong framework of pastoral care and house spirit. A school-wide positive behaviour support structure encourages a positive culture. Support focusses are there to provide assistance and scaffolding for those in need through our Learning Enhancement Centre, Careers Centre, Career pathways, Responsible Thinking process, tutorial programs and pastoral staff working to our College Blueprint for successful outcomes on an intervention approach. Rolls are marked each day, and follow up on absences occurs that morning if the College has not been notified. Text messages are sent home to alert parents of unexplained absences or lateness. Pastoral Leaders and Counsellors also follow up on any unexplained absences in a timely manner.
